CHASED HIS WIFE WITH A DEMIJOHNN

John Started Ruction And Loika Wants A Divorce

Became her husband, John Hull, came home drunk Christmas and New Year's eve, and chased her round the room with a demijohn. Loika Hull asks the court to grant her a divorce. If the allegations she makes against John are true, he certainly is not a pleasant man to live with.

According to her complaint, Hull came home on New Year's eve with several bottles of booze under his skin and several more under his arm. He also brought a friend with him to share in the festivities.

John, apparently, was imbued with the idea that he had forgotten something. He hadn't brought home enough oil of joy; so he sent out by a messenger and got a demijohn of wine. He and his friend then drank the wine, and, having emptied the demijohn, John seized it as a weapon and started after Loika, shouting that he was going to kill her. Loika escaped from the house and has been in hiding most of the time since. Once John met her on the street and invited her to go home with him so that he could "fix her." Loika declined the invitation to go home and be fixed.

She further alleges that for years it has been John's habit to get drunk frequently, especially on pay-day, at which times he often beat, kicked and bruised her. Several times he has been arrested for assaults upon her, and five times has received sentences from the court. Three times he has been fined and on two occasions he got jail sentences.

Loika has put up with him since 1882, but she thinks she has stood him long enough. She asks the court to give her the custody of their 12-year old girl and such pecuniary relief as the court may adjudge proper, as well as a decree of absolute divorce.

John Hull is an employee of the Land Office and works on the Capitol grounds.

SUIT NOT NECESSARY FOR RIGHT OF WAY

It will not be necessary for the Attorney General's Department to bring suit against the Kapilani Estate for a right of way through the Kailua property of the Estate for the new Kailua sewer. The matter has been settled without it being necessary to take it to the courts.

The Kapilani Estate at first refused to grant the desired right of way and the Superintendent of Public Works instructed Attorney General Peters to bring action for condemnation proceedings. The papers were accordingly drawn up and were about to be filed. Mr. Holloway, however, notified the Attorney General's Department this morning that the matter had been satisfactorily arranged.

The Weekly Edition of the Evening Bulletin gives a complete summary of the news of the day. For $1 a year.

Delicious Milk Bread

with its thin, crisp crust, its light texture and nutritious wholesomeness can be made as easily as any other kind, if the proper ingredients are used. And of these the most important is the milk.

Carnation Cream

(Sterilized) gives you a full-flavored loaf, rich and sweet, because it contains nearly three times the percentage of butter-fat that is in ordinary milk. You can use it for all baking or cooking purposes where milk is used, but with better results.

Milk Bread

Take 1 can Carnation Cream to 3 pints hot water. When lukewarm, add 1 tablespoonful sugar, 1 tablespoonful salt, and 1 cake compressed yeast dissolved in 1-2 cupful warm water. Use enough flour to make a stiff batter and let rise for 1 hour. Add enough flour to knead well. Cover and let rise till light. Then knead in pans and let rise half as much as before, and bake for 40 to 50 minutes.

Neckband Ironing

Serial Story No. 4

If the neckband on a shirt does not stand up when it is laundered, it is not properly laundered and it will not fit when you put it on. It will feel uncomfortable and often slips out from its place beneath your collar. It puts your whole dress out of order.

Notice the neckbands on the shirts that we launder. We have a special process for ironing the neckbands of shirts that makes them stand up and fit just as the shirtmaker intended they should.

Ours is the only laundry in this city with the facilities and we make a specialty of this feature.
